

Subject: YEAR 9 COMBINED CREATIVE ARTS (3D Design, Food Technology, Art +Textiles)

Question		Question
1	What is a scale model ?	21	Why do adolescents need increased energy?
2	Why is a scale model created before full-scale production begins?	22	Name two nutrients important for bone development in teens.
3	What is mixed media art?	23	Give one protein source suitable for adolescents.
4	What does it mean for a building or object to be " sculptural in design "?	24	Give one dairy source suitable for adolescents.
5	What is craftsmanship ?	25	Name one fruit or vegetable important for teen nutrition.
6	What is the definition of aesthetics ?	26	Why is iron important for teenagers?
7	List two synonyms for the word aesthetic .	27	What is the main nutritional focus for adults?
8	What is a realistic effect in design?	28	Name one source of fiber for adults.
9	What is a design concept ?	29	Name one source of healthy fat for adults.
10	What is an art object ?	30	Why should sugar and processed food intake be reduced in adults?
11	What is design iteration ?	31	Give one lean protein source for adults.

12	Name two synonyms for design iteration .	32	Name one factor that affects energy needs.
13	What is the purpose of a reflective evaluation ?	33	Why do teenagers need more energy?
14	How is basic research defined in the design process?	34	What does the Eatwell Guide show?
15	What is ideation ?	35	How many portions of fruit and vegetables are recommended per day?
16	In which phase of the design process does the product begin to take shape and represent the final result?	36	Name one starchy food to base meals on.
17	What is a design revision ?	37	How many portions of fish are recommended weekly?
18	What four stages make up " Our Creative Process " as shown in the diagram?	38	Name one protein source recommended by the Eatwell Guide.
19	What should initial design sketches be clearly linked to?	39	Give one dairy alternative suitable for the Eatwell Guide.
20	What must you follow to ensure the safe and confident use of tools and machines in the workshop?	40	What type of oils are recommended?

Question
41	What special material does Lucy Sparrow use to create her life-sized versions of everyday objects?
42	Instead of painting or sculpting, what two main things does Lucy Sparrow do to create her art?
43	Name one kind of everyday item you would find in a shop that Lucy Sparrow has recreated out of felt
44	What was the title of Lucy Sparrow's famous project where she turned a whole London shop into a felt store in 2014?
45	Where was the large felt supermarket project, "8 Till Late" (2017), located?
46	What is the general term for the style of art Lucy Sparrow creates?
47	Apart from shops, what other types of places has Lucy Sparrow recreated using soft felt versions?

48	What is special about the size of the objects Lucy Sparrow makes?
49	By changing ordinary products into handmade art, what feeling does Lucy Sparrow bring to the viewer?
50	Name one of the topics Lucy Sparrow's work encourages people to think about.
51	What is Lucy Sparrow's nationality?
52	What is the main purpose of a blanket stitch when used on the edge of fabric?
53	If you use a blanket stitch to attach fabric shapes onto a background, what is the picture you are creating called?
54	When a blanket stitch is used for appliqué, what is one thing it does to the layers of fabric?
55	How is the blanket stitch described when it is used to stitch fabric shapes?

56	What does the blanket stitch prevent the edges of the fabric from doing?
57	What kind of items do contemporary artists Sarah Evans and Joel Penkman focus on drawing realistically?
58	What is the specific style of art that Joel Penkman or Sarah Evans are known for, meaning their drawings look extremely realistic?
59	What art tool do they use carefully in layers to build her detailed style?
60	Besides using layers of coloured pencils, what other skill helps achieve a hyper-realistic style?